Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the new e-book, but do not embody a value on that page. Instead, add quite a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out prices by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different costs on each page. Be certain that your sales copy is exactly the same on every web page, and includes your promoting-deal with sentence. Then determine for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. This will tell you what your optimum worth is.

Finally, should you've written a guide that solves a downside or presents a new technique, your e-book will usher in both visitors and profits. So you'll want to write that selling-deal with sentence that sums up what downside your e-book solves and what the benefits of your 664 e-book will likely be to the shoppers who buy it.
